CNR Gill Library Policy on the Selection of Internet Resources

The CNR Gill Library website provides a selective compilation of internet resources organized by appropriate academic subject categories. Internet resources are reviewed and chosen according to the library collection development policy, with the purpose of aiding the research process in support of the educational mission of the College.